

IF SAVINGS WERE ALL

If just the putting away of money in a savings bank were the only object of saving, it would be of little benefit. The depositor would be simply a miser.

Money is meant to be used, wisely and with regard to real needs and wants. Wise investments can be made only with ready money and a savings account furnishes ready money.

We stand ready and eager at all times to advise our depositors of good investments—places for the money they have saved. Open your account here today. We pay 4% interest on savings.

ALL SOUTHLAND JOINS WITH HIGH ENTHUSIASM IN INDUSTRIAL DRIVE

LOS ANGELES.—Southern California communities, large and small, are responding with the utmost enthusiasm to the invitations extended by the Greater Los Angeles association to join in the movement for industrial expansion. Local committees have been organized in dozens of towns and cities and these are busy on membership drives.

One of the largest meetings held during the past week was that of the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce, when 450 representatives of 150 commercial and civic organizations gathered at a dinner at Home Gardens, near Huntington Park, and gave enthusiastic endorsement to the Greater Los Angeles association and the work it has undertaken. C. J. Colden, president of the Harbor board, told of the development plans for Los Angeles harbor to take care of the immense industrial expansion that is looked for. In moving for a vote of endorsement for the association, F. C. Finkle stated that he considered this one of the greatest steps for the advancement of Southern California that had ever been taken. The motion for endorsement was carried unanimously.

Active membership is being carried on at the following points by committees, with the chairman mentioned for each: Fullerton, Waldo O'Kelly; Huntington Park, L. B. Crossman; Torrance and Lomita, J. W. Macdowell; Glendora, George D. Wimp; Bell, George W. Myers; Santa Monica, Harry M. Gorham; Hollywood, C. E. Toberman; Alhambra, Judge W. M. Northrup; Glendale, Charles B. Guthrie; Redondo Beach, C. T. Funk; Claremont, Frank Wheeler; Watts, J. A. Martin; Norwalk, C. E. Irish; Anaheim, E. E. Smith; Burbank, J. C. Crawford; Whittier, C. A. Carden.

Organization of membership committees is under way in more than forty other communities in the Greater Los Angeles area.

The Los Angeles membership drive is being pushed forward steadily, while the work of informing the public concerning Southern California's opportunities and its necessities along industrial lines is going forward on an immense scale. Hundreds of thousands of pieces of literature are being put into homes weekly, besides the publicity through other channels.

STORIES

OUCH

"You naughty, cruel boy!" said the very fashionably dressed young woman who was taking a stroll in the park, to the urchin whom she found despoiling a bird's nest. "How can you be so heartless as to take those eggs? Think of the poor mother bird when she comes back and —"

"That's all right, miss," interrupted the boy; "the mother bird is dead." The young woman's expression reflected disbelief.

"How do you know?" she asked sharply.

"Cos I see 'er on your hat," was the reply.

OUCH, AGAIN

"John, you really ought not to eat that lobster salad," said Mary warningly.

"Now, look here, Mary, I've had a hard morning," retorted John, "and when I want to have a little bust as a reward for my labors you begin to lecture me."

"Well, it's for your own good. You know the doctor said you must not take anything that doesn't agree with you."

"Yes, and if I followed that rule, I'd like to know where you'd be," said John.

RELIEVED

Muriel, who is a very matter-of-fact sort of young person, not long ago received a proposal of marriage from a man whom she had always looked upon more as a brother than as a lover.

"Muriel," he began, "you know I have always turned to you; that I have always thought of you. May I—that is—would you consent—ah, hang it, Muriel, will you be my wife?"

"What a start you gave me, Clarence," said Muriel at last. "Do you know, I thought from your manner that you were going to ask me to lend you some money!"

ARTISTS IN JOINT RECITAL

A piano and voice recital was given by Mattie Romberg and Karl Watts Gilbert at the Cypress Park Presbyterian church at Los Angeles on Monday, May 2.

The concert was given as part of the nation-wide Music Week, before a large and appreciative audience.

The program was made up from works of Brahms, Schumann, Chopin, Grieg, Liszt, and MacDowell.

Mr. Gilbert will be heard over the radio from time to time, and we are sure he will have plenty of listeners-in from Lomita and Torrance.
